Welcome to DTLA 2040.

This public open studio and design charrette is an opportunity for Angelenos to discuss the future of Downtown.

Join us for a lively week of design workshops, discussion groups, and moderated panel sessions with guest speakers who are active in the Downtown resident, business, and development communities. The entire week is open to the public and intended to facilitate a discussion surrounding the vision for the Plan, and how it can help guide the future of DTLA.

DTLA 2040 is the update to two community plans, Central City and Central City North, which comprise Downtown Los Angeles. The Downtown Community Plans will describe a collective vision for Downtown's future and include policies, plans and programs that frame the City's long-term priorities.

SCHEDULE

EVERY DAY 9:00am - 6:00pm

The space will be open to the public, with a permanent display of presentation boards showing Downtown Community Plan draft policy concepts and zoning tools. Come in on your own time to view these materials, mark up maps, and participate in charrette-style design activities. Stop by anytime Friday or Saturday to check out re-code LA's initial draft of the Downtown zoning code options, and share your first impressions. Staff will be available to provide information and answer questions.

Special topical programming and moderated panel discussions are also open to the public, and listed below.
